ABOUT US

The International Journal of Law, Culture and Society (IJLCS) is a peer reviewed, open-access platform advancing interdisciplinary scholarship on law, culture, and society.

Founded by distinguished alumni and students of National Law School of India University (NLSIU), and National Forensic Science University (NFSU) to promote critical research linking law, culture, and social transformation.

IJLCS provides a forum for academics, practitioners, and policymakers to engage with emerging questions at the intersection of legal norms, cultural values, and social transformations.

The journal is published quarterly, adhering to COPE guidelines and antiplagiarism standards.

PREVIOUS ISSUES

The International Journal of Law, Culture and Society (IJLCS) has successfully released its first three volumes.

VOLUME I ISSUE I was formally forwarded by Dr Emma Roberts, Head of Law at the University of Salford, England.

VOLUME I ISSUE II was officially forwarded by Dr. George Forji Amin, Senior Lecturer in Law and Course Lead at the School of Law, York St John University, United Kingdom.

VOLUME II ISSUE I was formally forwarded by Prof. Angela van der Berg, Director Global Environmental Law Centre University of the Western Cape (UWC), Faculty of Law, South Africa

These milestones highlight IJLCS's dedication to fostering high-quality interdisciplinary research at the intersection of law, culture, and society
